

Thanksgiving - The Federal Blueprint For Internment, Treaties And Treachery

The federal government declared the last Thursday in November as the legal holiday of Thanksgiving in 1898. Columbus Day and Thanksgiving a day - odd American traditions soaked in myth and mayhem!

It was Christopher Columbus who gave the people the name Indios. With all the different dialects of the white men some pronounced the word Indien, Indianer or Indian. Peaux-rouges, or redskins came about later.

Columbus returned the hospitality of the Tainos indians by kidnapping 10 of them and carrying them off to Spain. The year was 1492.

(Crypto Jew - financed by the Jesuits and European money merchants)

The Crypto Jew left a few days before deadline for the last Jews to leave Spain

So are we really to believe that 'Chris Colombo' discovered the Americas?

I Kings 9:26-28" And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom. And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon"

King Solomon was in alliance with Hiram the King of Tyre.(II Chronicles 2:2-12). The Israelites and the Phoenicians worked together to build the Temple of יהוה (vs.13-18) and this alliance included shipping together

II Chronicles 8:8 "Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth, at the sea side in the land of Edom. And Hiram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon" (v. 17-18).

And say to Tyre, O you who dwell at entrance to the sea, who are merchants of the peoples of many islands and coastlands. . . The inhabitants of Sion and [the island] of Arvad were your oarsmen; your skilled wise men, O Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots. The old men of Gebal [a city north of Sidon] and its skilled and wise men in you were your calkers; all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise and trading"

Ezekiel 27:3, 8-9. Ezekiel goes on, "Your rowers brought you out into the great and deep waters; the east wind has broken and wrecked you in the heart of the seas . . . When your wares came forth from the seas, you met the desire, and the demand, and the necessity of many people; you enriched the kings of the earth with your abundant wealth and merchandise. Now you are shattered by the seas . . ."

The text is describing a globe trotting nautical nation that travels throughout the entire earth in its quest for material goods and trade!

1 Kings 10:22 "For the king [Solomon] had at sea a navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks"

Three Years!

Ferdinand Magellan circumnavigated the globe in three years -- from 1519-1522!

Sir Francis Drake, the first Englishman to circumnavigate the globe, took three years to do so (1577-80)!

The Ten Commandments were discovered in Paleo Hebrew and the Star of David was even found in an ancient ruin of the Pueblo Indians in New Mexico.

Early English settlers in the Americas found among some of the Indian tribes Teffillin!

Minoan and Phoenician coins have been found, and inscriptions of ancient Phoenician and Minoan scripts, in Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and New Mexico!

If you really want to dig more into this read "The Art of Terra Cotta Pottery in Pre-Columbian Central and South America", Dr. Von Wuthenau

In 1780, on a rock on the shores of Mount Hope Bay in Bristol, Rhode Island, there was discovered an inscription, which Fell deciphered in 1975 to read:

VOYAGERS FROM TARSHISH
THIS STONE PROCLAIMS

Teffillin were discovered in Pittsfield, Massachusetts in the early 19th century in an ancient Indian burial ground.

In 1860 stones hewn with Hebrew inscriptions were found near Newark Ohio.

Here's a quote from a letter from President Thomas Jefferson to John Adams in 1803, "all the Indians of American to be descended from the Jews: the same laws, usages; rites and ceremonies, the same sacrifices, priests, prophets, fasts and festivals, almost the same religion, and that they all spoke Hebrew."

We don't realize today, the belief of the Native American/Israelite connection proliferated widely in the early 1800s. Joseph Smith established a whole religion based on it.

Mariano Edward Rivero and John James von Tschudi in Peruvian Antiquities (1857) point out the points of agreement between the American Indians and the Hebrew people, they write, "Like the Jews, the Indians offer their firstfruits, they keep their new moons, and the feast of expiations at the end of September or in the beginning of October; they divide the year into four seasons, corresponding with the Jewish festivals. . . . In some parts of North America circumcision is practised . . . There is also much analogy between the Hebrews and Indians in that which concerns various rites and customs; such as the ceremonies of purification, the use of the bath . . . fasting, and the manner of prayer. The Indians likewise abstain from the blood of animals, as also from fish without scales; they consider divers quadrupeds unclean, also certain birds and reptiles, and they are accustomed to offer as a holocaust the firstlings of the flock"

Hebrew words were even used in the religious performances of the North American Indians, The Indians would call an accused or guilty person 'haksit canaha', 'a sinner of Canaan'; and if someone was inattentive to religious worship, they said, 'Tschi haksit canaha', 'You resemble a sinner of Canaan.'

Beverly Northup, spokesperson, The Northern Cherokee Nation of the Old Louisiana Territory.

"The story has been kept alive among our Cherokee people that the Sicarii who escaped from Masada, are some of our ancestors who managed to cross the water to this land, and later became known as Cherokees."

Side note: many of the Indian tribes would cut their hair short as a morning rite for the dead. You read a strict prohibition against this in Lev, it was a Cannanite morning custom. How did it make it's way all the way over to the Native Americans, coupled with the fact that their sidelock braids were reminiscent of peyote's!

The American Cherokee Indians worshipped the Supreme Being, Ye ho waah

The Cherokees have three actual cities of refuge, they have the stories of the great flood, and many other Old Testament stories.

They also adhere to the prohibitions found within the Ten Commandments.

Cherokees keep one day without work for prayer. The name for Cherokee People is "A-ni-yun-wi-yah", which in English means "The Principle People" or akin to "The People of Yah."

Gold:

Isa. 13:12*"I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir".

Where was the legendary "Ophir"? What was this "golden wedge"?

The Hebrew word for "wedge" is "leshonah" and refers to a a bar or instrument of gold- literally, a "tongue of gold."

Isaiah was referring to a particular instrument of gold that was famous in Ophir.

The Inca Empire of Peru:

was famous for the quantity and quality of the gold it produced. In modern Quichua Pirua means 'a granary or storehouse' - a store house of 'gold.'

One of the first kings in the region was Manco Capac who founded the city of Cuzco. History records that Manco got rid of his three brothers and led the people of Cuzco. We read in The Incas of Peru by Markham on p. 50, 53 "He took with him a golden staff. When the soil was so fertile that its whole length sank into the rich mould, there was to be the final resting place."

This golden staff was referred to as a "sceptre of gold about a yard long and two fingers thick" (Markham, Royal Commentaries of the Yncas, p. 64). This was none other than the "golden wedge" or "tongue" of Ophir mentioned by the prophet Isaiah -- the "golden wedge of Ophir"!

Peru was the Ophir of Solomon. Peru was infact first settled by Ophir, the grandson of Noah (Gen. 10:29).

The ancient sea faring Israelites discovered the Americas!

English speaking white men stepped foot in 'Virginia' in 1607:

Virginia was the land of the 'Powhatans' and they were already familiar with the 'civilizing' techniques of the Spaniards. The English were much more crafty, they put a crown upon the head of Wahunsonacook and dubbed him King Powhatan. Later, John Rolfe married his daughter, Pocahontas to solidify trading relationships. After King Powhatan died the Powhatan's rose up in revenge from the savage treatment they'd received at the hands of the white man. 8000 Powhatan's were reduced to hundreds and the story of the indians was just unfolding!

Real Estate Tycoon

You think old Donald Trump is a real estate tycoon! When the Dutch came to Manhattan island they 'purchased' it for sixty guilders in fishhooks and glass beads!

Thanksgiving was not about religion. Had it been, the Pilgrims never would have invited the 'heathen' Indians to join them!

In mid-winter 1620 the English ship Mayflower landed on the North American coast, delivering 102 exiles. The original native people of this stretch of shoreline had already been killed off . In 1607 and later in 1614 a British expedition had landed there. When they left they took 24 Indians as slaves and left smallpox behind! Three years of plague wiped out between 90 and 96 per cent of the inhabitants of the coast, destroying most villages completely.

Thanksgiving sermon delivered at Plymouth in 1623 by "Mather the Elder." In it, Mather the Elder gave special thanks to God for the devastating plague of smallpox which wiped out the majority of the Wampanoag Indians who had been their benefactors. He praised God for destroying "chiefly young men and children, the very seeds of increase, thus clearing the forests to make way for a better growth", i.e., the Pilgrims.

The colonists embraced a line from Psalms 2:8. "Ask of me, and I shall give thee, the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession."

Thanksgiving week at Plymouth Plantation in 1621:

The Europeans landed and built their colony called "the Plymouth Plantation" near the deserted ruins of the Indian village of Pawtuxet.

The Puritans were not just simple religious conservatives persecuted by the King and the Church of England for their unorthodox beliefs. They were political revolutionaries who not only intended to overthrow the government of England, but they actually did so in 1649!

In 1643 the Puritan/Pilgrims declared themselves an independent confederacy, one hundred and forty-three years before the American Revolution. They believed in the imminent occurrence of Armageddon in Europe and hoped to establish here in the new world the "Kingdom of God" foretold in the book of Revelation. They diverged from their Puritan brethren who remained in England only in that they held little real hope of ever being able to successfully overthrow the King and Parliament and, thereby, impose their "Rule of Saints" (strict Puritan orthodoxy) on the rest of the British people. So they came to America not just in one ship (the Mayflower) but in a hundred others as well, with every intention of taking the land away from its native people to build their prophesied "Holy Kingdom."

All the savages that opposed them the Puritan preachers would loud Romans 13:2 in their Sunday sermons: "Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation".

The Wampanoag Indians were actually invited to a Thanksgiving feast for the purpose of negotiating a treaty that would secure the lands of the Plymouth Plantation for the Pilgrims. In celebration of the Pilgrims good fortune, the colony's governor, William Bradford, declared a three-day feast of thanksgiving after that first harvest of 1621.

But the Pequot Nation hadn't agreed to the peace treaty Squanto had negotiated and they fought back. The Pequot War was one of the bloodiest Indian wars ever fought. In 1637 near present day Groton, Connecticut, over 700 men, women and children of the Pequot Tribe had gathered for their annual Green Corn Festival which is our Thanksgiving celebration.

In the predawn hours the sleeping Indians were surrounded by English and Dutch mercenaries who ordered them to come outside. Those who came out were shot or clubbed to death while the terrified women and children who huddled inside the longhouse were burned alive. The next day the governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony declared "A Day Of Thanksgiving" because 700 unarmed men, women and children had been murdered.

Massachusetts Colony Governor, John Winthrop, proclaimed a "Thanksgiving" to celebrate the safe return of a band of heavily armed hunters, all colonial volunteers. The ones that had just returned from their journey to what is now Mystic, Connecticut where they massacred the 700 Pequot Indians.

Following an especially successful raid against the Pequot in what is now Stamford, Connecticut, the churches announced a second day of "thanksgiving" to celebrate victory over the heathen savages. During the feasting, the hacked off heads of Natives were kicked through the streets like soccer balls. Even the friendly Wampanoag didn't escape the madness. Their chief was beheaded, and his head impaled on a pole in Plymouth, Massachusetts -- where it remained on display for 24 years!

In 1675, all-out war began. The name given to the war was King Philip's War.

The killings became more and more frenzied, with days of thanksgiving feasts being held after each successful massacre. George Washington finally suggested that only one day of Thanksgiving per year be set aside instead of celebrating each and every massacre. Later Abraham Lincoln decreed Thanksgiving Day to be a legal national holiday during the Civil War -- on the same day he ordered troops to march against the starving Sioux in Minnesota.

Puritans and Indian Slaving!

So successful was this early trade in Indian slaves that several Puritan ship owners in Boston began the practice of raiding the Ivory Coast of Africa for black slaves to sell to the proprietary colonies of the South, thus founding the American-based slave trade.

William Bradford, Governor of Plymouth, wrote of the Pequot Indian massacre:

"Those that escaped the fire were slain with the sword; some hewed to pieces, others run through with their rapiers, so that they were quickly dispatched and very few escaped. It was conceived they thus destroyed about 400 at this time. It was a fearful sight to see them thus frying in the fire...horrible was the stink and scent thereof, but the victory seemed a sweet sacrifice, and they gave the prayers thereof to God, who had wrought so wonderfully for them."

Wampanoag speech at the town of Plymouth Rock, Thanksgiving 1970.

"Today is a time of celebrating for you -- a time of looking back to the first days of white people in America. But it is not a time of celebrating for me. It is with a heavy heart that I look back upon what happened to my People. When the Pilgrims arrived, we, the Wampanoags, welcomed them with open arms, little knowing that it was the beginning of the end. That before 50 years were to pass, the Wampanoag would no longer be a tribe. That we and other Indians living near the settlers would be killed by their guns or dead from diseases that we caught from them. Let us always remember, the Indian is and was just as human as the white people."

Thanksgiving is the blueprint with how the Federal government deals with perceived 'hostiles' those who choose to live peacefully farming and living off the grid, people that object to the governments plans for expansion, control and reeducation.

"You will be betrayed from members of your only family,"

Once the US Army has broken down and enslaved the Indians, they then employed them as mercenaries- blue coat scouts who betrayed their own people, leading the Army into the camps of other still free tribes (the Army employed Tenino Indians as mercenaries from Warm Springs Reservation, Oregon against the Modoc's of Northern CA)

Native American treaties and the Agenda 21 connection:

Agenda 21 Sustainable Development program is an urban planning "action plan" which calls for government to eventually take control of all land use without leaving any decision making in the hands of private property owners!

It's the expansion of government power at the expense of individual liberties by making the population more dependent on city infrastructure controlled by the government.

Much like the military-political-reservation complex, where men made fortunes winning contracts and funneling bad food, shoddy blankets, and poisonous whiskey to the thousands of Indians trapped on reservations. (US Army watched on as once great Chiefs would have to watch on as their women and children would wither away from starvation before them all under the watchful eye of the government - this is Fema today, surely you understand this?).

Elevating land above man - the reverse of the bible mandate - environmentalism is agenda 21 (more later) environmentalism is key to Fema reservation implementation.

The precautionary principle, where you're guilty until proved innocent (as with all the great Native American tribal Chiefs). An end to national sovereignty, the abolition of private property, the restructuring of the family unit, increased restrictions on mobility and individual opportunity.

Human beings are to concentrated into human settlement zones, educational systems are to focus on the environment as the central organizing principle,

How can this be implemented? Ask the Natives, you steal a generation of children and indoctrinate them with these ideas and they become global citizens in the coming global village which is packed and stacked next to high speed light 'rail systems.' The very rail systems the Fema cars are running on!

The entire purpose of public school second grade social studies is to transfer loyalty from the family to the Federal government.

Why are they dumbing down a whole generation? Education for Sustainable Development: "Generally more higher educated people, who have higher incomes, consume more resources than poorly educated people, who tend to have lower incomes, In this case, more education increases the threat to sustainability'.

Native Americans are very familiar with this type of control through subversion, broken treaties that are deceptively penned (like our Patriot act and Obama care) these are used to trick people out of their God given rights and funnel them into restricted 'reservations' 'Fema zones' for their 'safety' and 'protection'. This is where the government handouts are promised but will never be fully realized. When and if they do arrive they'll be either greatly diminished, spoiled or carry the very diseases designed to wipe out the resisting population and implement the 'Georgia Guide Stones' population reduction that will secure the future for the elite generations!

George Clooney - Tommorowland, population reduction, and the elite living off planet, or in another dimension free from desolation that is soon coming upon planet earth. The launches 'to the moon' were really a cover for inter dimensional travel and of course Disney is at the center of the conspiracy!

Conclusion

So should we celebrate Thanksgiving? It's not a pagan feast, it's not an affront to יהוה it doesn't replace any of the Feasts of יהוה. It's simply a national holiday that has been repackaged for mass consumption.

There's noting wrong with sitting down with family and friends on this day and having a Thanksgiving.

But if we're wise and discerning we'll recognize and teach it's sinister past and be watchful because the Illuminati has already began implementing the practices and policies that surround the history of Thanksgiving and the history of the Native peoples.

Be watchful, learn from the Indians who came to understand that the white man's laws were an illusion that didn't apply to them. Those that make the laws are themselves above the law, if you did what Hillary Clinton and half these career politicians do including Kitzhaber you;d be in jail!

We've got a lot to be thankful for....

BUT we must be prepared to learn from the past....

.....to avoid the FEMA-military-political-reservation complex of the future!
